A Domestic Allegory.

In those parts of Asia which are subject to the British rule, the heat of the climate and the taste for ease and luxury which is engendered by the oppressiveness of the atmosphere, have encouraged the indulgence of habits, which in temperate climates would be thought extravagant and luxurious, although use and the custom of several generations have made them almost necessities of life in the tropics. Take for instance, the retinue of servants which an European of moderate income is compelled to keep in India; in any temperate climate the number would be ridiculed as absurd and useless, then again, the master of the house never thinks of troubling himself about his servants, he will seldom even hire any others than the Kit-magar or butler, and perhaps a coachman. As long as there is no lack of money, and no very close overhauling of accounts, the affairs of the household will probably go on smoothly. The European who has his own business to attend to, is anxious for relaxation when the day's work is over, and does not desire to trouble himself with the menage of his household, or his stable, he tells his head servant what he can afford to spend upon his establishment per month, and gives himself no further anxiety; he expects to sit down to a comfortable dinner every day, and to have his horses and carriages in good order, it does not occur to him to grudge the wages which he pays to his butler or coachman for doing but little for him, nor does it in any way cause him uneasiness that the Butler will not so much as move a chair across the room for the lady of the house, or that the coachman will touch nothing in the stable or coach-house except the whip and reins; so long as everything is properly ordered in the establishment, and the Maccadums see that all the underlings do their work properly, the Englishman pays the monthly bills readily and without a murmur; he is perfectly contented that his head servants should do no work themselves and be overpaid, and will not grumble if they cheat him, so long as he is not annoyed by the indolence or want of attention or thieving propensities of the rest of his establishment, but if the cook runs up enormous bills and produces indifferent dinners, or if the groom brings the horse to the door with a rough coat and sorry harness, then must the butler and coachman look to it or leave, and without a character. It is not entirely with the view of condemning these customs that we put forth this parable, the system is not entirely bad, if properly carried out, and as it is the nature and habit of Englishmen to submit to extortion rather than incur any trouble, it is not surprising that under the influence of a tropical climate, customs which tend to ease, and do not after all cost much more than would be expended if the employer looked after every separate department of his household himself, should be adopted; but it is certainly surprising to find any portion of a tax-paying community adopting a similar system, more especially in a country like British Columbia, where the climate is not enervating, and where the business men of the Colony have ample leisure to look after affairs, and to see that they are properly performed; the reason that some amongst us openly avow for leaving things under the charge of one man, who is not even responsible to those who provide the money, is, that "public affairs are not their business," that "they do not interfere in politics," that "they detest professional politicians," but really the excuses of such men are so utterly devoid of reason, that to listen to them is tedious, and to quote them would be worse than useless, except for the sole purpose of pointing out how worthless and how mischievous they are; those who put forward such lame pleas for their non-interference in public business, are the very men who produce in countries, that state of public feeling which culminates in revolution; they are the same class of men that allowed the Stuarts to tamper with the English Constitution to such an extent as, but for the expatriation of the whole family by those who were active enough to move in public affairs, would have brought the monarchy to a close two hundred years ago. Much mischief is done in our own Colony by those who are content to leave our Government as it is. It is that class of men who say, "give the Government fair-play," that encourage the present

Governor of this Colony to believe that the people are satisfied, both with himself, and with the present form of Government, and that dissatisfaction is only a political cry. If the Governor were half as active as the principal servants in the East, whose system of doing their master's business we have sketched, if he even took care that the whole governmental machine worked economically and well, we could understand indolent and indifferent people saying, "let things remain as they are, they might be worse," but as it is, we can only suggest as a conclusion to our parable, that if the Kit-magar failed to see that those under him performed their work properly. If he permitted gross extravagance, and if he did not render a proper account of the funds committed to his charge for carrying on the establishment, he would be discharged and with such a character that he would not be likely to get another place.

Mr. Waddington's Overland Route.
The petition of Mr. Waddington, of Vancouver Island, to the Imperial Parliament, praying for aid to open a road from Lake Superior to British Columbia, and which has been published, does not disclose an attractive picture of his domicile. He attempts to explain the causes why that island has failed to realize the expectations which were nourished as to its eventual prosperity when it was first colonised; but we must grope our way through much obscurity to reach any solution. Climate, soil, coal, fisheries, harbours, and gold deposits are here; yet Vancouver languishes; one-half the population are anxious to depart—the other to annex themselves to the United States. Mr. Waddington has material interests at stake, and is evidently attached to the old flag. It is, therefore, natural that he should cast about for some remedy less drastic than a change of Government and transmuting himself into an American. He sees no alternative save in confederation, and the only obstacle in the way—the want of an interoceanic road. We quite concur with him as to the feasibility of constructing a wagon road from Lake Superior to the Pacific, because three-fourths of the route would traverse the Saskatchewan prairie country, and tolerably easy passes were long since discovered through the Rocky Mountains; but we never yet have been able to understand from any enthusiast of the Waddington school how we are to reach the west end of Superior for seven months of the year. We admit that for the other five, steamers can conduct the traffic; but when once the ice bars the navigation, we should be as much shut out from the west as from Hudson's Bay or the east shore of Labrador and the Moravian missions. It is begging the question to assume that we can use the American railway to St. Paul and ascend the Red River, because the same argument would apply with more eugeney against the Intercolonial and in favour of the Portland route. A centralised and despotic power like Russia could establish a post road from St. Petersburg to the Amoor River, along which the late Sir George Simpson sped at the rate of ten miles an hour for a thousand leagues. But even Russia parted with her possessions on this continent, although Alaska was more accessible from the Amoor in winter than the Red River is to Canada, if we confine ourselves to our own territory. Had the prairies of the Saskatchewan been placed by nature in close proximity to Western Canada, they would to-day contain the half-million of our people who emigrated to the neighbouring republic and Australia; but with hundreds of miles of rocky desolate country around them, and Superior shutting us out from the basin of the Winnipeg—we see serious impediment to free winter intercourse with the Red River country. We may be told that California furnished a case analogous to Vancouver Island and British Columbia, but it must be remembered that California was from the outset, self-supporting; and now, besides its gold and wool, exports twelve million bushels of wheat. She rejected greenbacks and sticks out stoutly for gold currency; whereas Vancouver is embarrassed with debt, its revenue short of its expenditure, and its population, moody and discontented. We heartily wish Mr. Waddington every success in his appeal to the Imperial Parliament. A country that could afford to spend twenty five million dollars to rescue half-a-dozen captives from the den of a barbarian, ought not to forget its duty towards thousands of its children scattered between the Red River and the Pacific. A tenth of the sum lavished to gratify sentimental pride, would redound to the honor of the nation and confirm the prosperity of future generations. We wish some second Capreol would arise to point out the line of our water road to the Northwest, and suggest some feasible process of constructing it. We feel as if we were grasping at a shadow until a civilized mode of communication be established with our coveted provinces.—London Canadian News.

EXTRAORDINARY CURE OF A COUGH.

The following letter has been received from WILLIAM BOARDS, Esq., an extensive agriculturist and land agent, residing at Edmonton, Middlesex:—

"Nightingale Hall, Edmonton.
"Dear Sir,—I have recently suffered much from a most violent cough, proceeding from a tickling in my chest, which no remedy, out of many I resorted to, could allay. My head was constantly aching, and my whole frame entirely shaken.
Having seen the good effects of your Balm of Aniseed in several members of my family, I purchased a small bottle, and, when going to bed at night, took a teaspoonful in two tablespoonfuls of water, just warm. The effect was immediate; it arrested the tickling in my chest, I slept well, and arose perfectly restored in the morning, with the exception of debility, arising from fatigue by incessant coughing for some days previous. My cough entirely left me, and has never returned.
Having since heard of a lady in the neighborhood who for a long time had laboured under a most distressing cough, and who had resorted to every remedy within her knowledge, I sent the remainder of the bottle to her; and that long-standing, obstinate, and (as she thought) incurable cough, was perfectly cured. You are at perfect liberty to make what use you may please of this communication, as the contents are strictly true.
I shall take every opportunity of recommending your inestimable medicine, feeling as I do fully assured of its efficacy.
"I am, dear Sir, yours very truly,
"WM. BOARDS.

he is now introducing its sale into Victoria, B. C.,

THE KING OF PERFUMES.

THE VICTORIA PERFUMERY is now adopted by the ELITE of the aristocracy and fashionable world on account of the superior articles for the toilet each of which has been made a speciality.

The new perfumes prepared with the ESSENCE of YLANGYLANG extracted by distillation from the UNONA OBOBATISSIMA and imported from the Philippine Islands are beyond comparison for their delicacy and sweetness. We therefore recommend the BEAU MONDIE to try as a handkerchief perfume.

THE EXTRACT OF YLANGYLANG AND
THE MANILLA BOUQUET

Besides these, which are the exclusive property of their house, Messrs Rigaud and Co prepare in a most approved and superior manner all the fashionable scents, amongst which we may mention the

Ess Bouquet Wood Violet Nigronette Jockey-Club Maraculin Jessamine
New Crown Hay Monaceline Mimosa Field Flowers Rondeletin Moss-Rose

RIGAUD'S TOLUTINE

Is an admirable toilet-water, the true talisman of beauty, preserving the freshness of the skin and the fairness of the complexion. It is the perfection of science adapted to the toilet, and is incontestably superior to Eau de Cologne, or the most esteemed of vinegars and the Florida water.

THE MIRANDA HAIR-OIL AND POMATUM.

Is a remarkable preparation which may be called a real treasure for the hair. It is composed of tonic and fortifying compound, and it beautifies and preserves the hair at the same time as it imparts to it a most refreshing perfume.

MIRANDA SOAP,

COMPOSED MAINLY OF THE MILK OF THE LETTUCE AND THE LILY.

A simple comparison of this soap with others sold by the perfumery trade, suffices to prove its superiority. It gives the skin a deigh surface, it lathers abundantly, forming a real milk-bath, and is all that can be desired as to perfume.

DENTORINE
AND TOOTH-PASTE.

THE DENTORINE is a pleasant elixir for the teeth; it perfumes, and refreshes the mouth, strengthens the gums and prevents decay.

THE TOOTH-PASTE has made quite a revolution in this class of toilet necessary, and has done away with powders and opiates that are more or less acid and dangerous. A brush passed over it produces a soft and unctuous mucilage that gives the teeth a brilliant whiteness.

THE ROSE POWR

Preserves the skin from the roughness of the wind and the cold, gives it a soft freshness, and prevents red-spots and freckles. It is far superior to rice and starch powders, and it is deliciously perfumed.

Medical.

French Medicines,

PREPARED BY GRIMAULT & CO.

Chemists to H. I. P. Prince Napoleon,

PARIS.

These different medicines represent the most recent medical discoveries, founded on the principles of Chemistry and Therapeutics. They must not be confounded with secret or quack medicines, as their names sufficiently indicate their composition; a circumstance which has caused them to be appreciated and prescribed by the Faculty in the whole world. They widely differ from those numerous medicines advertised in the public papers as able to cure every possible disease, as they are applicable only to but a very few complaints. The most stringent laws exist in France with regard to the sale of medical preparations, and only those which have undergone an examination by the Academy of Medicine and have been proved efficacious, either in the hospitals or in the practice of the first medical men, are authorised by the Government. This fact must be a guarantee for the excellence of Messrs. Grimault et Co's Medicines.

NO MORE COD LIVER OIL!

Grimault's Syrup of Iodized Horse Radish.

This medicine has been administered with the utmost success in the Hospitals of Paris. It is a perfect substitute for Cod Liver Oil, and has been found most beneficial in Diseases of the Chest, Scrofula, Lymphatic Disorders, Green Sickness, Muscular Atony, and Loss of Appetite. It regenerates the constitution in purifying the blood, it being the most powerful depurgative known. It has also been applied with happy results in Diseases of the Skin. Further, it will be found to be of great benefit to young children subject to Humors and Obstructions of the Glands.

CONSUMPTION CURED!

Grimault's Syrup of Hypo-phosphite of Lime.

This new medicine is considered to be a sovereign remedy in case of Phthisis and other Diseases of the Lungs. It promptly removes the most serious symptoms. The cough is relieved, night perspirations cease, and the patient is rapidly restored to health.

N.B.—Be sure to see that the signature of Grimault & Co. is affixed to the bottle, as this Syrup is liable to imitations.

NO MORE DIFFICULT OR PAINFUL DIGESTION!

DR BURIN DU BUISSON'S

(Laureate of the Paris Imperial Academy of Medicine)

DIGESTIVE LOZENGES

This delicious preparation is always prescribed by the most reputed medical men in France in cases of derangements of the digestive organs, such as

Gastritis, Gastralgia, Long and Laborious Digestion, Wind in the Stomach and Bowels, Emaciation, Jaundice, and Complaints of the Liver & Lungs

NERVOUS HEADACHE, NEURALGIA, DIARRHÆA, DYSENTERY,

INSTANTLY CURED BY Grimault's Guarana.

This vegetable substance, which grows in the Brazil has been employed since time immemorial to cure Inflammation of the Bowels. It has proved to be of the greatest service in cases of Cholera, as it is a preventive and a cure in cases of Diarrhœa.

NO MORE COPAIBA OR CUBERS!

Where all other preparations have failed these preparations will always effect a cure. These insure rapid and extraordinary cure of severe recent and chronic cases of private diseases. They are used in the hospitals of Paris, by the celebrated Dr Ricard, and found greatly superior to all hitherto known mineral remedies and Copaliba and Cubers. The Injection is used in recent, and capsules more chronic cases.

Grimault's Capsules and Liquid Extract of Matico Vegetalis.

Where all other preparations have failed these preparations will always effect a cure. These insure rapid and extraordinary cure of severe recent and chronic cases of private diseases. They are used in the hospitals of Paris, by the celebrated Dr Ricard, and found greatly superior
to all hitherto known mineral remedies and Copaliba and
more chronic cases.

TO THE UNFORTUNATE NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES.

Dr Gibbon's Dispensary, 616 KERNAN STREET, NEAR Commercial, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis, in all its forms, Seminal weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

Dr. Gibbon has the pleasure of announcing that he has returned to this State, after an absence of one year during which he visited all the principal Hospitals of Europe, among them those of Dublin, London and Paris. The following celebrated Hospitals of London are among those visited by the Doctor: Guy's, High street, Borough; St. Bartholomew's, Smithfield; St. James's street; St. Mary's, Lamb. Place, Pall Mall; Lock, Harrow Road; University, Gower street; Westminster, Broad street; Charing Cross, Agar street; Strand; London; Whitechapel Road; Royal Free, Gray's Inn Road; King's College, Portland street.

Dr. Gibbon has spared neither time nor money in seeking out new remedies, and has secured the most increased facilities for the alleviation of human suffering.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgence, or from virus absorbed into the system. Look at their pal-id, emaciated and disfigured faces, and their broken down constitutions, disqualifying them from the happiness of marriage or of the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation, thousands of wretched creatures, who are the victims of a cruel and deadly disease, are seen. Let parents, guardians, friends, attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible, life-destroying maladies—so that they are careful, and cured before it is too late. Send them immediately to Dr. Gibbon's physician who has made private diseases his especial study for years, who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those afflicted, or to those who are concerned in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of great physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful, and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emission, the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing, with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless counteracted by adequate medical measures, viz.: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, numbness about the limbs, weakness of the limbs, constant vision, blurring of sight, loss of confidence, difficulty in approach by strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, hurried tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

CARRIED MEN.

Of those who contemplate marriage, who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies, should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief.

Dr Gibbon's Dispensary, and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to meet a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

Cured at Home.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr Gibbon stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicine promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions of use. By enclosing $15 in currency or $10 in coin, in a registered letter through the Post office or through Wells Fargo & Co., a package of medicine will be forwarded by express to any part of the Pacific Coast.

OUR MR MITCHELL'S MODE OF spoken of by the late Dr Lindley in a leader of the Gardener's Chronicle for 1857. He sums up thus:— "It seems to us that we have here an improvement introduced into construction, which is second only to that which followed the introduction of hot water pipes."
